

Thomas Plume's Library presents

a special exhibition on the theme of:

Routes, Networks, & Connections

John Speed, A prospect of the most famous parts of the world (London: Printed by Iohn Dawson for George Humble, to be sold at his shop in Popes-head Pallace, 1631).

The exhibition will be open 10am-4pm Saturday 14 September 2024 for Heritage Open Day, and throughout the month of September: Tuesday-Thursday 2-4pm, Saturdays 10-12.

Please note: access is via a spiral stone staircase