Thomas Plume's Library is a registered charity, number 1179957

Thomas Plume's Library needs your help.

In order to ensure that this unique treasure of regional and national importance remains open and benefits from professional librarianship, we need to increase our income.

Donations from visitors and supporters are vital in helping to cover the Library's running costs.

We have set up a Regular Giving Scheme for people who are able to provide financial support to the Library on a regular basis.

Our target is for 100 people to donate £10 per month, but donations of any amount are very much appreciated. At December 2025 we are almost half way to this target – please help us to reach it.

In recognition of the value to the Library of regular supporters, an optional display of names in the Library entrance is being explored.

The easiest way to donate is via our Give as you Live Donate account. Search for Thomas Plume's Library on their website:

<https://donate.giveasyoulive.com/donate>

You can donate by card or direct debit. A modest fee of 2.5% is applied.
